We'd like to Introduce You to Our Time-Tested Process for Identifying, Purchasing and Installing a Gas Log Fireplace-

Research

- It's always good to have a general idea about what type of fireplace you'd like to have installed and one of the quickest places to get inspiration is our Gas Log Fire Pinterest Pages or our Google+ entries.

Consultation

- Contact us to book a no obligation home consultation, or simply call into our gas fireplace showroom Melbourne to find your dream fireplace's best match from the large range we have available. During this consultation every aspect of the fireplace will be discussed so we can identify the best fireplace choice and design.

We will talk you through all the different elements than will impact on your choice of fireplace, things like,

- do you want it for primary heat, or more for secondary, supplementary heat?
- do you have your heating needs covered and want it more as a decorative 'wow' factor fire to create the right ambience for your space?
- do you like square or rectangular designs, or designs that are modern or traditional?

The next step is to discuss the important issues of,

- where the flue will run
- gas and power supply
- every aspect of the installation from start to finish

Evaluation and quotation

- our consultant will take the time to weigh up all your choices
- a comprehensive quote is provided for the heating system, with a breakdown of component and installation costs

Implementation

- once our quote is accepted we move onto the implementation phase of making your dream a reality

For those who've chosen complete entertainment walls

- we provide a no obligation concept and working plan from the offices within our gas fireplace showroom Melbourne, so you envisage your design coming to life before we start, and also resolve any final design and finish choices.
- then lay out a detailed final plan for the works, which we email to you so you understand how long the job will take and what stages are involved.

Installation

- our gas fireplace showroom Melbourne installation team will swing into action to complete the fireplace installation
- you will be shown how to operate and best use your new gas log fire.

- we provide all plumbing and electrical compliance certificates
- Finally you get to sit back and enjoy your new gas log fire!
